To Whom It May Concern:

This letter is to acknowledge that I have worked with Charles D. Herold in more than one business venture, and that he has always been a reliable financial professional who has added value to my projects. Chuck has a broad-ranging perspective on corporate financial matters and as such, his input was often unique and always useful. I would be comfortable to rely upon Chuck's abilities again in the future.

Sincerely yours,

T. Radford Hazelip
